The chart indicates the whereabouts of God, mankind, and angels throughout the ages of history. Note that the punishment of deceased unbelieving mankind in Hades is temporal as promised when Jesus said "the gates of Hades will not prevail", Paul wrote "Hades where is your victory?", and John wrote "Hades gives up." Also note that certain fallen angels are already held in a separate prison, Tartarus, awaiting final judgment and sentencing to the Lake of Fire which is "prepared for the Devil and his angels." Satan's rebellion will be crushed and Christ will be victorious in the salvation of all his people. You too can know your name is already written in Heaven through faith in Jesus Christ!

What?

What are we? Genesis 1:26-2:3

26) Then God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

27) So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. 28) God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground." 29) Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. 30) And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food." And it was so.

31) God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day. 2:1) Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

2) By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. 3) Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

How?

How did sin? Romans 5:12-19

12) Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because all sinned— 13) To be sure, sin was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not charged against anyone's account where there is no law. 14) Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who is a pattern of the one to come.

15) But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many! 16) Nor can the gift of God be compared with the result of one man's sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. 17) For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

18) Consequently, just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people, so also one righteous act resulted in justification and life for all people. 19) For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

Why?

Why did God? Romans 11:25-36

25) I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in, 26) and so all Israel will be saved. As it is written:

"The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. 27) And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins."

28) As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies for your sake; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, 29) for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable. 30) Just as you who were at one time disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience, 31) so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you. 32) For God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all.

33) Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out! 34) "Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?" 35) "Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?" 36) For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.
